POLICE COMMISSIONER

Eva Garza Dewaelsche

Eva Garza Dewaelsche

has served as President of SER

Metro-Detroit Jobs for Progress, Inc., for over 20 years and became its CEO in 2007. President Obama honored her in 2014 with the White House Champion of Change award for her leadership in making SER Metro a multi-state workforce development organization with workforce center operations and programs with over 50 locations and over 500 employees in Texas, Illinois, and Michigan.

Prior to SER Metro, she worked at National Bank of Detroit as a market research analyst for 10 years. A former police officer, she previously served as a Police Commissioner under Mayor Dennis Archer (1999-2003) and Mayor Duggan (2015-2020). She served as Chair or Vice Chair several times. In 2024, the mayor appointed her to the Board for a new term ending in October 2028.

Her work and civic roles reflect her dedication to improving the quality of life for Detroiters. Her current board affiliations include the Detroit Economic Growth Corporation, Wayne County Community Development Entity, Detroit-Wayne County Integrated Health Network, New Detroit, Inc., Comerica Community Development Advisory Council, Wayne State University (WSU) President's Advisory Council, Detroit Regional Workforce Alliance, and DTE Community Advisory Council.

A lifelong Detroit resident and graduate of Western High School, she earned a Bachelor of Sociology and Master of Education from WSU. She also completed the Harvard Executive Training in Community Leadership, Detroit Regional Chamber's Leadership Detroit, New Detroit's Hispanic Leadership, and Michigan State University's Political Leadership programs.

Police Commissioner Dewaelsche and her husband Robert recently acquired El Central Hispanic Newspaper, the state's oldest and largest bilingual publication. They have two daughters: Lisa who lives in New Orleans and Christina who lives in New Jersey with her husband and two children.

About the Detroit Board of Police Commissioners

The Board of Police Commissioners

(BOPC) is comprised of 11 members. Seven (7) are elected by districts like City Council members, and four (4) are at-large mayoral appointees approved by the Council. All 11 Board members serve without compensation as a vital civilian board to help ensure police powers and practices comply with Constitutional protections and community policing standards.

The 1974 City Charter first established a civilian oversight board. The BOPC derives its current powers and duties from the 2012 Charter, which strengthened independent, citizen oversight.

Authority: The Board has supervisory control and oversight of the Police Department.

Meeting Schedule: The Board is required to meet at least once each week but may vote to recess during the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year holidays. All meetings are held in accordance with the Open Meetings Act.

Specific Duties:

- Establish policies, rules and regulations in consultation with the Chief of Police, and with the approval of the Mayor
- Review and approve the departmental budget before its submission to the Mayor
- Receive and resolve any complaint concerning the operation of the Police Department except those involving criminality
- Act as final authority in imposing or reviewing discipline of employees of the department
- Make an annual report to the Mayor, the City Council, and the public of the department's activities during the previous year, including the handling of crime and complaints, and of future plans

Other Board Responsibilities:

Staff*: The Board appoints a Board Secretary and a Chief Investigator, along with other investigators to handle citizen complaints against police/DPD.

Chief of Police: Whenever the Chief of Police position becomes vacant, the Board is responsible for conducting a professional search to identify qualified candidates. The Board submits a list of the final candidates to the Mayor, who makes the appointment subject to City Council approval.

Police Personnel: The Board appoints a civilian as Director of Police Personnel. The Board also approves all promotions made within the Police Department.

Office of the Chief Investigator (OCI): OCI investigates citizen complaints against police and other DPD staff and reports findings to the Board.

Contact OCI to file a complaint against police officers or any other Police Department employee:
